Which feature on a Cisco router permits the forwarding of traffic for which there is no specific route? next-hop; gateway of last resort; route source; outgoing interface; 2. Which three advantages are provided by static routing? (Choose three.) Modules 14 – 16: Routing Concepts and Configuration Exam ... Routers use a routing protocol to know all the available paths of the network and to select the best and the fastest path to forward incoming packets. A routing protocol provides the following functionalities. Provide a virtual map of all paths of the network. Calculate the cost of each path and help a router to select the best and fastest path. Basic Routing Concepts and Protocols Explained Best path is selected by a routing protocol based on the value or metric it uses to determine the distance to reach a network: A metric is the value used to measure the distance to a given network. Best path to a network is the path with the lowest metric. CCNA 2 v6.0 Study Material – Chapter 1: Routing Concepts 1.3.4.1 – Dynamic Routing. Dynamic routing protocols are used by routers to share information about the reachability and status of remote networks. Rather than manually configuring static routes, dynamic routing protocols use network discovery to share information about the networks that it knows about with other routers that are using the same routing protocol. Step 1: Use the router ospf command in global configuration mode to enable OSPF on the R1 router. Enter a process ID of 1 for the process-ID parameter. R1(config)# router ospf 1 R1(config-router)# Step 2: Configure the network statement for the LAN network. Lab: Basic OSPF Configuration Lab - ut Use the debug ip rip command to display RIP routing updates. R2 is receiving the route 172.30.0.0, with 1 hop, from both R1 and R3. Because these are equal cost metrics, both routes are added to the R2 routing table. Because RIPv1 is a classful routing protocol, no subnet mask information is sent in the update. Lab: RIPv2 Basic Configuration Lab - ut The Complete CCNA & CCNP Labs Course 2020- Basic to Advanced 4.5 (434 ratings) Course Ratings are calculated from individual students' ratings and a variety of other signals, like age of rating and reliability, to ensure that they reflect course quality fairly and accurately. The Complete CCNA & CCNP Labs Course 2020 A metric is calculated by a routing protocol and is used to determine the best path (smallest metric value) to a remote network. Administrative distance (AD) is used when a router has two or more routes to a remote destination that were learned from different sources. The source with the lowest AD is installed in the routing table. CCNA2 v6.0 Chapter 1 Exam Answers 2019 - Passed Full Score ...
